Responsibilities: The Faculty Senate shall act in an advisory capacity to the deans, the provost and the President with respect to UNT HEALTH policy on matters relating to personnel, faculty bylaws, appointment, promotion, tenure, faculty and student grievance, instructional activities, research, service programs within the UNT HEALTH and other matters that may affect professional functioning of the faculty. The executive committee of the Faculty Senate or their designee(s) shall serve as representative of members of the faculty at all appropriate meetings of UNT HEALTH administration at which these policies and procedures are discussed. Specific duties include: (a) the Faculty Senate may recommend academic policy (except tenure and review policy) for the university, acting with due regard to the requests and needs of the specific departments and schools, to the advice of the President and provost, and to the Board of Regents Rules and the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board. Such policies become official when published by the President and (b) the Faculty Senate may consider all matters of general welfare to the university including matters raised by senators, by senate committees, by the President and provost, and, through petition, by any other administrative official or body, and by any full-time faculty member who shall then have the right to speak to the petition.
